There we shall give information on the Catholic Church and the process of membership, which we call the Rite for the Christian Initiation of Adults and older children (RCIA). We use the RCIA process for non-baptized children in school.

RIGHT OF LIFE GARAGE SALE

The annual Darke Co. Right to Life garage sales will be held in St. Denis church basement on Wednesday, June 20 (5:00-8:00 p.m.) and Thursday and Friday, June 21 and 22 (9:00-8:00 p.m.). Volunteers are welcome and appreciated on Monday and Tuesday to set up and on Friday to load the truck for Kentucky at 8:00 p.m. Contact Janice at 526-5207 or Marlene at 419-582-3891 with any questions.

FATHER DAVE

We give a warm welcome to our visitors from places far and places near. Welcome to all you who have come to Versailles for Poultry Days. We congratulate you on coming to the best places in the area, Holy Family Church in Frenchtown and St Denis Church in Versailles itself. We hope God blesses you in your visit to us.

Holy Family Church has the distinction as the oldest church building in continuous use in Darke County. We have a plaque celebrating this fact, but we shall not have it installed until the following week. We shall have the official dedication of the plaque after 9:30 mass on June 24.

LITURGY: PURIFICATION

A parishioner has observed me purifying the sacred vessels after communion. He has two questions, why we call it purifying and why have I started doing it on the side of the altar and not in the center. I can answer the second question more easily than the first. We try to do the rinsing of the cups on the side because the action does not have central importance. We have to rinse them out either after communion or after Mass. We consider rinsing the vessels a necessary chore, but not a central one. As for calling the action purification, perhaps I have answered the question by speaking of rinsing. Purifying seems to imply cleaning something dirty, whereas we rinse to protect the Eucharist from contamination.

WEDDINGS

Stacy Graves and Dereck Dirksen plan to marry on June 16 at St. Louis, North Star.

Kristine Blakeley and Brian Happy plan to marry on June 30 at Holy Trinity, Coldwater.
