Goodavish, a priest from the Diocese of St. George in Grenada, will be here next weekend to speak about a ministry providing direct relief to the poor throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Please welcome him. Since he will cover me for Mass, I shall take off for New Mexico to baptize another great-niece.

REST IN PEACE

Betty Lehmkuhl died this week and received Christian burial yesterday. Please keep her and her family in your prayers.

FATHER DAVE

I want to thank the Bruns family of Holy Family for allowing us to run tile through their wheat field so that we can correct the flooding at the Parish hall. I appreciate the cooperation of the members of the Bruns family.

We have also started the work to lay new water lines to the house, church and hall. Some of this work you may see today, some you will see later. We have also work to do on the parking lot and walls of the church. I shall meet with the Building and Grounds Committee tomorrow on these projects. I appreciate the work of the Committee and others who have worked with them for the good of the parish at Holy Family.

LITURGY -- RCIA

Our neophytes have entered the period of their formation known as mystagogy. This means that those recently baptized among us have come to the point in their development as Catholic disciples of the Lord Jesus where we can debrief them and explain more deeply the mysteries of the Lord's death and resurrection that they have entered through the sacraments of initiation.

We all profit by mystagogy. During Lent, we prepared for the Easter Vigil by works of penance. Now we take time to reflect on the meaning of Easter for us. The resurrection the Lord Jesus comes to us through the sacraments of baptism, confirmation and eucharist. We reflect on how these sacraments affect us in our lives. The risen Lord has come to us and given us his life; mystagogy helps us understand this mystery.

PASTORAL COUNCIL ELECTION

The Pastoral Council exists to give the pastor advice and council on the pastoral needs of the parish. We do not elect members because they can do projects or help with administration; we do it because they can look at the pastoral and spiritual needs of the parish and help the pastor address these needs. We have four openings on the council beginning for three-year terms starting in June, two for Holy Family and two for St. Denis. The council meets the first Tuesday each month at 7:30 p.m. Please call the parish office with your name or the name of someone you recommend. We will elect in May.
