TOUR OF THE CHURCH

We invite you to a tour of St Denis Church on Monday, July 14. We shall explain the stained glass windows, the furniture and the things we use at Mass. Plan to come tomorrow at 7:00 p.m. in St Denis Church. Many parishioners and non-Catholics have questions about what we have and do in church.

WALLS OF THE CHURCH:

Holy Family Church has to weatherproof the walls of the Church. At a parish meeting June 29, the people said that they would favor putting Dryvit over the soft brick wall at a cost of $39,000. We have also spent close to $10,000 to repair water pipes, drainage tile and the sewage system. I have sent a letter to all parishioners of Holy Family asking for their support. Now, I ask you alumni, family members of parishioners and others to support the people of Holy Family in their need. We need to raise $39,000 by the first of September. Please fill out the coupon below with a pledge or donation. Put it in the collection.

HOLY FAMILY CHURCH FUND

Count me in. I shall contribute $_____ to help repair the walls of Holy Family Church. Name: _____; Phone: _____. Please respond by September 1, 2008

FATHER DAVE

I found out that I had an interesting column last week. I had written it the Friday before the previous Sunday to meet an early deadline imposed by the impending holiday the week later. Naturally, I proceeded to write it as if for the last Sunday of June instead of for the first Sunday of July. This week, I think I have returned to normal (by my definition, not by my sisters' definition) and can think in terms of July 13, next Sunday. Such trials and experiences we have as we go through life.

LITURGY

In a discussion with some of the Men's Group in the parish last week, we spoke of St Paul. One article used the term Pauline Christianity. The more I have thought about this, the more I have come to think in terms of Paul's Judaism.

Paul puts forth the idea in his writings that those who believe in Christ make up the true Jewish people. He speaks of pagan converts as grafted onto the natural vine of Israel (Romans 11:11-15). He speaks of the Gentiles as once strangers now made into members of Christ (Colossians 1:21; Ephesians 2:11-20). He declares that Christ has abolished the distinction between Jew and Gentile, slave and free by making all people one in himself (Galatians 3:28; Colossians 3:11)

Paul did not give up his Jewishness in following Christ. He saw his life as a disciple of Christ the fulfillment of his Jewish calling. He boastfully calls himself a Hebrew, an Israelite and a descendant of Abraham (2 Corinthians 11:22-23; Philippians 3:4-10). In Romans 9:3, Paul declares that he would accept condemnation for himself if this would save his brother Israelites.

Paul saw his vocation as one of bringing Gentiles and native Jews together in the true Israel, not in terms of his own brand of Christianity.

??? YOUTH MINISTRY ???

World Youth Day Group Australia: At this time, our pilgrims have landed in Australia. They will spend a few days in a neighboring diocese as they make their way in pilgrimage to Sydney. They have landed in a land celebrating winter, with not much more than a backpack of personal luggage. As in ancient pilgrimages, they have some physical discomfort. Next Saturday, they will hike ten miles to the all-night vigil with the Pope. Please keep them in your prayers.

Junior High-High Ropes and Initiatives: The junior high youth ministry will do initiatives and high ropes at Appleseed Ridge Girl Scout Camp in Lima, Ohio on July 28-29. Students should drop off their signed forms and money ($50.00 per person) at the rectory porch as soon as possible if they want to go. All current seventh and eighth grade students may attend.

Steubenville Youth Conference: Please pray for our youth who are at the Steubenville Youth Conference this weekend.
