MONDAY CCD PARENTS

Monday CCD Students: We ask all parents (grades 1-6) to send a note to their child's teacher giving permission to walk to CCD on Mondays after school. Your child will not be allowed to come without your permission.

FATHER DAVE

School has started and laughter once again fills the parking lot before weekday Mass. Friday morning communion liturgies have resumed at 6:30 on school days. The first holiday from school has also come. Instead of laughter in the playground before Mass tomorrow, I hope to hear the noise of many eager people coming for 9:00 Mass. Then, on Tuesday, I shall again await the noise of children on the playground and know that God's love continues to grow in our day.

LITURGY

I promised a serious series, not without humor, on welcoming or hospitality. I forgot to look at the Scriptures used in the Sunday liturgy. Enter, then, James, with his teaching on hospitality and welcoming people. He speaks of the rich and the poor as coming together into our assembly and notes how differently we treat the two.

We like rich people, if by rich you mean those rich in our eyes, and dislike poor people, if by poor you mean those down upon whom we look. People's clothing, the way they strut or do not strut, their accent, their friends, their automobiles, everything about them says rich or poor to us and we welcome or unwelcome them accordingly.

James takes this serious topic and treats it seriously. We must welcome all who come into our assembly; we cannot exclude anyone.

COMMUNITY SUPPER – ALL WELCOME
Every Wednesday, 5:00-6:30
At Trinity Lutheran Church, We cook September 16.

RCIA

Please pray for those interested in coming into full union with the Church. The Rite for the Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) can help all of us understand better our Catholic faith. Call 526-4945.

SWINE FLU AND MASS

The Chancery and Worship Office of the Archdiocese have received my calls regarding the swine flu and Mass. At this time, their recommendation is as it has been in the past during flu season: to encourage parishioners/students to take precautions, such as frequent hand washing, remain at home if you are sick, refrain from drinking from the cup and shaking hands at the Sign of Peace if you are not feeling well.

WELCOME

We welcome all here, whether longtime residents or newly-arrived, whether Catholic or not, whether interested in the Catholic Church or not. If you have a comment or would like to register or give a change of address, please fill out the form below and put it in the collection basket or mail it to the office.

Northern Area Congress: at Upper Valley JVS, Piqua, Saturday, September 19, 8:00-3:00. Archbishop Daniel Pilarczyk will give the keynote address. There will be 33 workshops designed for parish staff, pastoral council members, parish commissions and catechists, and open to all. Many meet skills requirements for catechist certification. Call the CCD office to register/pick workshops. The parish will pay the $25 fee (including lunch).

CCD Teachers: Parents have the primary responsibility of raising their children in the practice of the faith. CCD can only help them. We need more parents to step up and assume their primary responsibility. We need ten more parents to extend themselves by teaching in our CCD programs. By doing this, they will help us help all our parents fulfill their primary responsibility. Please pray for our parents, teachers and children.

CCD begins on September 21 for grades 1 to 6 from 3:15 to 4:15 p.m. at St. Denis. Classes begin for all grades at Holy Family and grades 7 to 12 at St. Denis, from 7:00 to 8:00 p.m., on September 23. Extra registrations forms are at the entrances to church.
