Happy Easter

FATHER DAVE

Thank you to Linda Meyer, her teachers and Marlene Puthoff, Janet Zumberger, Cindy Subler, Teresa Grilliot and Tina Subler, our cooks for the Senior Brunch last Sunday.

Thank you, Seniors, for your participation with us these past eighteen years. As you move ahead, remember where you have come from so you can go where you should.

LITURGY

Does Easter have to last so long? I have sensed this question in people recently. We ought to spend our daily lives praising God because we shall spend eternity praising him and we need to practice. If we do not practice, we shall not know how to do it. Right now, however, we live in sorrow and hope because we do not yet see what we shall have in the future. We do well to persevere in desire until the promise comes when hard work gives way to praise. Easter gives us a foretaste of heaven and it follows the hard work and sorrow of Lent. Lenten sadness has given way to Easter joy just as earthly labor will give way to the joy of heaven. Easter, then reminds us of what we shall have in Easter. We take fifty days to celebrate it each year, and one day out of every seven, to remind us of the goal we have in heaven.

The Lord worked with them and confirmed the word in signs."
