Happy Easter

FATHER DAVE

Bud Sutter has celebrated his eighty-seventh birthday this past week. He received a surprise visitor from an Air Force Colonel, who presented him with a "Thank You America!" diploma and medal from the French Government for his services in France during World War II. The citation reads "Diploma of recognition from France to the soldiers of the allies who engaged in combat from November to the liberation, 1944-1945." It carried of signature of Mathieu Clouvel Gervaiseau, the Consulate General of France at Houston.

Congratulations, Seniors. Sorry I have to miss the graduation. I celebrate Mass at 12:30 for the Ohio Air National Guard in Springfield.

LITURGY

St Cyril of Jerusalem compares the Holy Spirit with water. Common water, no matter how much it looks the same, produces differing effects in differing circumstances. It forms itself into grapes, oranges, dates and many other living things. It gives life to fish, protects a baby in the mother's womb, puts out fires, washes and cleanses. It accommodates itself to the structure of the one receiving it.

The one Holy Spirit, although one, of one kind and indivisible, nonetheless divides grace up as he wishes. He waters the parched life of the sinner to bring forth fruit of repentance. He gives gifts for understanding, for casting out devils, for interpreting the Scriptures and for all good purposes. His oneness makes him pliable and strong.
