We omitted Judy and Norbert Barga from the list of those celebrating Silver Jubilees this year.

FATHER DAVID VINCENT'S COLUMN

We put together last week's bulletin four days before Christmas: I had to read the bulletin to remember what we had put in it. Since that time, I managed to sleep a whole year from December 31 to January 1, to visit with some classmates from out of town, make some candied orange and grapefruit peels for my sisters and keep my sanity, although my sisters do not know where I keep it.

LITURGY: EPIPHANY

The events of the Epiphany continue to unfold this week and next eve though we shall have officially left the Christmas-Epiphany even today. Historically the West has celebrated the Baptism of the Lord Jesus and the Wedding Feast as two of the three parts of the mystery of Epiphany. Today, we celebrate the Baptism. Next week we shall celebrate the wedding at Cana.

Tomorrow we enter the time of year ordered by weeks and Sundays using ordinal numbers. This practice of counting first, second, third up to thirty-fourth gives this time its English title, Ordinary Time. We ought not expect, however, to find this Ordinary Time ordinary or boring. Rather, we take up the theme of the whole life of the Lord. This year in this extraordinary time called Ordinary Time, we shall have the gospel according to Luke proclaimed with readings from 1 and 2 Corinthians, Colossians, 2 Thessalonians, 1 Timothy and Hebrews.

THANK YOU

Thanks to Jean Grieshop and Peggy Borgerding. Peggy made several dozen purificators for us over the past two years and most recently, Jean embroidered red crosses on them as a further sign of the sacredness of purificators; they help us rinse and dry chalices after Communion. Thank you, Jean and Peggy.

Thanks to the John Subler Family for donating the trees, which we used to decorate the churches for Christmas. Thanks to all who helped decorate the churches.

WORSHIP COMMISSION MEETING
