VOCATIONS

You are alive for God. Trust that God will welcome you into the kingdom. (Luke 20:27-38).

WELLNESS TIPS

Body: Take a warm bath or have a warm glass of milk before bed if you cannot sleep. Mind: Take a mental break and clear your mind of thoughts for a few minutes a day. Spirit: Discover the deeper meaning.

BAPTISMS

The next pre-baptismal program will take place in January. We have baptisms during Mass with two weeks notice. We schedule baptisms apart from Mass only once a month in each parish, usually after the 11:00 a.m. Mass. The next baptisms after Mass will take place on November 21 and December 26.

FAITHFUL DEPARTED

The following loved ones passed away this past year and were remembered at our All Souls Mass on Tuesday. Please remember them and their families in your prayers:

Mervin Schulze, Alverda Bohman, Alma Grillot, Ruth Marshal, Patrick Baltes, John Baltes, Dolores Baltes, Ryan Luthman, Janet Barlage, Adele Marchal, Clara Subler, Leroy Bruns, Dolores Shotz, Kenneth Subler, Roger Magoto, Todd Prenger, Patricia Bey, Virgil Bensman, Nicholas Grillot, Roger Mangan, Marion Nearing, Joan Barga, Ralph Drosch, Norma Reed, Mary M. Monnin, Leo Barga, Treva Pierron, Michael Philipot, Shirley Hartzell, Joseph Pequignot, David Armstrong, John Simon, Bernard Barga, Lester Lehmkuhl, Lovena Bulcher and Doris Warner.

FATHER DAVE'S COLUMN:

Dear Abby had a column in Tuesday's paper about professionals who do not proofread their letters. I did not proofread adequately my writing last week. I left out a word and tried to back my way into a thought.

I wanted to say that anyone in the eighth grade or older could ask for training as an Extraordinary Minister of Communion. Instead, I left out the word grade and talked about not having died yet. I wanted to say that I invited both youth and adults to share in this extraordinary ministry of giving Communion to the faithful.

Those who want to take part in this work or the work of acolyte, server at Mass, usher, greeter, or musician should contact me by November 17. I cannot accept applications for Communion Distributors after this date because I must have permission from the Archbishop to commission and train them and I want to finish this by the end of the month.

LITURGY

The hour for Mass approaches and people stream toward the church in large numbers. They come, conscious of the importance they have as the assembly. Soon they will form a sacramental sign of the presence of Christ, body, blood, soul and divinity because they will form the assembly of the Church in this one particular place, but they will mirror the whole Church.

This very power we have as baptized into Christ, that we turn into a sacramental sign, a sacrament, of the living presence of the glorified and risen Christ. Formed thus into the Body of Christ, we shall celebrate this Body of Christ in the word proclaimed and in the bread and wine of the Eucharist.

Thank you for streaming into the church.

PARISH STEWARDSHIP INITIATIVE

Our reports on the Stewardship Initiative run about a week late. We have received over 250 responses. I consider this a good response. Please respond this week so that we do not have to send you letters reminding you to reply.

Some have expressed concern about the cost of postage. It does cost money to send letters. We send the letters, even repeatedly, because of the importance of stewardship. We could send fewer letters if those who have received them would answer them.

If you cannot increase your offering or do not want to use envelopes, you can still answer and still come to Mass.

RCIA: RITE OF ACCEPTANCE

We have had two people inquire into the Catholic Faith. We welcomed Jessica Groff and Jenny Neiberg into the Catechumenate at the 5:00 Mass this week.

PARKING LOT SUPERVISOR NEEDED

St Denis needs someone to supervise the parking lot on Wednesdays during CCD. Please call the office at 526-4945.

God is the God of the living, for to God all are alive.

Postures and Gestures at Mass: Part 1

In the celebration of Mass we raise our hearts, minds and voices to God, but we are creatures composed of body as well as spirit and so our prayer is not confined to our minds, hearts and voices, but is expressed by our bodies as well. When our bodies participate in our prayer we pray with our whole person, as the embodied spirits God created us to be, and this engagement of our entire being in prayer helps us to pray with greater attention

During Mass we assume different postures: standing, kneeling, sitting, and we are also invited to make a variety of gestures. These postures and gestures are not merely ceremonial. They have profound meaning and, when done with understanding, can enhance our personal participation in Mass. In fact, these actions are the way in which we engage our bodies in the prayer that is the Mass.

Each posture we assume at Mass underlines and reinforces the meaning of the action in which we are taking part at that moment in our worship. Standing is a sign of respect and honor, so we stand as the celebrant who represents Christ enters and leaves the assembly. This posture, from the earliest days of the Church, has been understood as the stance of those who are risen with Christ and seek the things that are above. When we stand for prayer we assume our full stature before God, not in pride, but in humble gratitude for the marvelous thing God has done in creating and redeeming each one of us. By Baptism we have been given a share in the life of God, and the posture of standing is an acknowledgment of this wonderful gift. We stand for the Gospel, the pinnacle of revelation, the words and deeds of the Lord, and the bishops of the United States have chosen standing as the posture to be observed in this country for the reception of Communion, the sacrament which unites us in the most profound way possible with Christ who, now gloriously risen from the dead, is the cause of our salvation.
