CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

We do not have a report of contributions this week for the CMA: this should come next week. We do know that we had a good return on envelopes this past weekend. I hope you will all respond to the appeal. We accept anything from a penny to three million dollars. Even if you choose not to give financially, I hope you will give prayers and return your pledge card. We have these financial goals: $9007.00 (St Denis) and $1921 (Holy Family).

BAPTISMS

The next pre-baptismal programs for new or expectant parents will take place in April in the church basement. Please call the office to register. We usually do not baptize during Lent except in emergencies. We shall baptize after Mass next on Easter Sunday I.

FATHER DAVID VINCENT'S COLUMN

As the bulletin goes to press, our girls' basketball team heads for the regional finals. We cancelled CCD last Wednesday so our students could cheer their favorite team on in good conscience. We shall have a make-up assignment for them this week. Part of our Christian life includes supporting others in the good they do. I hope the students saw Jesus at the game in themselves and in the other school's team and fans. If they did not, then they have failed CCD this year.

LITURGY: CHRISTIAN BURIAL

In the funeral rites, the Church primarily offers worship, praise and thanksgiving to God for the gift of a life now returned to God. The Church commends the dead to God's merciful love and pleads for the forgiveness of their sins. The community expresses the union of the Church on earth with the Church in heaven in one great communion of saints. Though separated by death, the dead still have communion with the believers on earth and benefit from their prayers.

Unless people publicly live outside the laws of the Church and give great scandal to the Church, we welcome them to this public gesture of fellowship with the whole Church. If we reserved Christian funerals only for canonized saints, we should have very small cemeteries.

"Your brother was dead and has come back to life, was lost and is found."
