VOCATIONS

The love of God is being poured forth into our hearts. Open yourself to receive and share that love. Be open to God's calling you to spread love through a Church vocation. (Romans 5:1-5)

WELLNESS TIPS

Body: Use herbs and spices to season food to reduce salt intake. Mind: Pick or buy some flowers for yourself. Spirit: Share your spiritual beliefs with someone special.

DEACON JACK RETIRES

Deacon Jack served as a deacon voluntarily. Ordination did not automatically give him a salary in the Church. He did receive stipends for some of his work, baptisms, weddings and such, but not for the usual work of the deacon at Mass. When he expressed an interest in going to Rome, I encouraged him and offered the support of the parishes. If you want to support us in the endeavor, you can. We shall have a reception for him June 19 after the 5:00 Mass in the basement at St Denis.

REST IN PEACE

Ralph Droesch received Christian burial on Wednesday of this past week at St. Denis. Please remember him and his family in your prayers.

CONGRATULATIONS

Bob and Jennifer Paulus celebrated their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary on May 25. Best wishes to them and to all celebrating wedding anniversaries this week.

CATHOLIC MINISTRIES APPEAL

Holy Family has pledged $4,624 or 241% of our goal with responses from 39% of our parishioners. St. Denis has pledged $20,035.00 or 222% of our goal with responses from 27% of our parishioner. We keep moving closer to 100% response.

FATHER DAVID VINCENT'S COLUMN

Parents have children to get rid of them. They receive them in trust as infants and have less than eighteen years to prepare them for responsible Christian adulthood. Then they release them into God's care as adults.

May your children grow up well, leave home well, accomplish the work God has for them and return to you many times over the blessings you have given them. May they outdo you in holiness and add splendor to the family name and the Church. May they, like good students, add to the knowledge of their parent-teachers.

LITURGY: MYSTAGOGIA

Mystagogy means catechizing from the mystery celebrated. This definition tells you nothing unless you know what catechesis means. It explains and teaches. Mystagogy starts from what we can see and moves towards what we do not see.

We have a period of mystagogy at Mass. It follows the Communion and it happens in silence. It takes place between the end of distributing communion and the Prayer after Communion. During this time, we do not thank God, which we have done during the Eucharistic Prayer, nor do we meditate, which we have done in the pause between the readings at Mass. We do, however, praise God for the mysteries we have celebrated and we usually do this silently.

As we realize what has happened to us, what we have experienced, what the Lord has done for us in the Eucharist, we praise God. This mystagogy leads us to praise.

"Everything that the Father has is mine. The Spirit will declare it to you."
