FATHER DAVE'S COLUMN

Did the Pope really call me? The Pope did send Bill and Doris Goettemoeller a scroll with a Papal Blessing for their golden wedding anniversary, but only at the request of their children. He did not, however, call to remind me of their anniversary or tell me what to say. I thought it would help me in the homily to have a little humor at the start. I do not advise you, however, to tell Bill and Doris that they do not have friends at the Vatican.

LITURGY: SACRAMENT OF PENANCE

If you want to edify a priest, celebrate the sacrament of penance with him. Tell him all of your sins and you will edify him. You will also challenge him to follow Christ better himself because what he hears you tell him will speak more about the good in you than the evil you have done.

If you have postponed celebrating the sacrament of penance, come now. Many people, the world over, have prayed every day for you. Many cloistered religious, nuns and brothers, have prayed for you, some even before your birth, some, perhaps, even knowing your name. The good you have done and the evil you have suffered unites you to the whole Church and Christ. The evil, however, that you do separates from one another. Come and rejoin the Church in your good.

"You are fretting and fussing about many things, but only one thing is necessary."
