FATHER DAVE'S COLUMN

I miss summer. During summer, I had an excuse for the empty playground. Now that school has started again, I have to deal with the fact that the fifth and sixth graders have picked up their books and gone off to a different place. On the other hand, I welcome the new school year because we have a building we can dedicate primarily to religious education.

LITURGY

Welcome visitors. I hope the welcome the Lord Jesus extends to all who come finds itself reflected in the welcome we give you. In Mass, as in all liturgy, Christ uses the sacramental principle to work on us. This means that he uses signs and words that we can experience to give us his grace. In the welcome we give you, we pray that Christ gives you the grace of his hospitality. Join us, then, as the Lord speaks to us in his Word and nourishes us with his body and blood.

We hope you have enjoyed the class reunions and that you come back to visit us again.
