FATHER DAVE'S COLUMN

I have started a program of training some of our senior servers, those who also have received commissioning as Minister of Communion, to serve as Masters of Ceremonies. Among other things, they will help younger servers and learn how to help visiting priests.

Their training includes learning the layout of the Roman Missal and a practical knowledge of the things needed for Mass. In the end, they should have the ability to answer almost any question posed to them by a visiting priest. Please keep this program in your prayers.

LITURGY: ISAIAH

What new thing can the Lord our God do? Can God change the desert into pasture or farmland? Can God put rivers in deserts? Can God so bless us that we forget our troubles and rejoice in his care for us? To Isaiah, God promises to do something new and spectacular, to forgive the people's sins and remember the sins no more: God forgives.

The people of Jesus' day saw a new thing in the way Jesus healed the man with paralysis.

ORDER, IMMIGRANTS AND HUMAN DIGNITY

While affirming the rule of law and order in our nation, the U.S. Catholic bishops have spoken strongly about the need for federal immigration reform. The lack of reform has devastating effects on the families of local migrants. David Scharfenberger of the Cincinnati Catholic Social Action Office and Sister Maria Francine Stacy, SND of the Dayton Hispanic Office will offer a 30-minute presentation followed by a question and answer period on the Church's teaching on immigration reform on February 21, 2012 beginning at 7:30 pm in the St. Denis Church Basement. Please come and learn what the Church teaches and how the immigration system works. The pastoral Council will meet afterwards.

We are forming a committee to move forward on the work we have begun with the Mexican diocese of Puerto Escondido. Some people have received an invitation by mail to be part of this group. However, we are sure that there are other people who may be interested. Our first meeting is set for February 21 in the church basement. We will join the Pastoral Council for the presentation by David Scharfenberger and Sister Maria Francine at 7:30 p.m., followed by an information meeting. Please contact Fr. Dave or Jane Pierron if you are interested in being part of this exciting new ministry in our church.

Palms: Please bring in last year's blessed palms to be use on Ash Wednesday.
