FATHER DAVE'S COLUMN

I look forward to our trip to Mexico. I hope to have some time for extra prayer and retreat. We shall meet with Bishop Carmona and with leaders of the diocese. We have outlined the goals we have for our work. Please pray for the success of God's work in our two dioceses.

We have a statue of St Juan Diego to bring as a gift for the Bishop. The bronze original stands in the Basilica of Our Lady of Guadalupe in Mexico City.

LENT: DISCIPLINE FOR DISCIPLES

Lent starts Wednesday. We invite all to receive ashes at Mass (8:00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m.). We have the Sacrament of Penance from 5:15 to 7:15. We have a special collection for the Catholics of Eastern Europe. Please check the insert for the disciplinary practices of Lent. We have morning Communion Liturgies at 6:45 on school days starting Thursday.

LITURGY: GENESIS

A flood made an end to the wickedness of the people on earth. God save only Noah and his family. God makes a covenant with Noah never to destroy the world by water. We enter a desert, waterless place, as we head for God's covenant with us in the waters of baptism. The waters of baptism give life, not death, to the world.

ORDER, IMMIGRANTS AND HUMAN DIGNITY

U.S. Catholic bishops affirm the rule of law and order in our nation, but they have spoken strongly about the need for immigration reform. The current practice has ravaged the families of local migrants. David Scharfenberger of the Cincinnati Catholic Social Action Office and Sister Maria Francine Stacy, SND of the Dayton Hispanic Office will offer a 30-minute presentation followed by a question and answer period on the Church's teaching on immigration reform on this Tuesday at 7:30 pm in the St. Denis Church Basement. Please come and learn what the Church teaches and how the immigration system works. The Pastoral Council will meet afterwards.

We are forming a committee to move forward on the work we have begun with the Mexican diocese of Puerto Escondido. If you would like to join with this group, come to this presentation. Our first meeting will follow this presentation. Please contact Fr. Dave or Jane Pierron if you are interested in being part of this exciting new ministry in our church.
